Thimphu Tour

Enjoy your breakfast in “Latest Recipe” the hotel restaurant boasting a lively open kitchen and western-inspired cuisine.

After a sumptuous breakfast, we will visit National Memorial Chorten which was first built in 1974 and to honour the 3rd Druk Gyalpo, Jigme Dorji Wangchuck. This is a prominent landmark in the city in golden spires and bells where one cannot miss.

Next, visit Buddha Point, is the largest sitting statue Buddha located at one of the mountains in Thimphu known as Kunzangphodrang. The statue was made celebrating the 60th anniversary of the fourth King Jigme Singye Wangchuck while fulfilling two ancient prophecies from the 8th and 12th century which stated that a giant Buddha statue would be built in the region to bless the world with peace and happiness.

Visit Jungshi Handmade Paper Factory, another interesting place we do not want to miss as this is the pilot conservative program to preserve the traditional handmade paper culture. At the factory, you will get to see the process of producing Bhutanese handmade paper giving an ancient art relevance to the modern world. And today, these products are exported out to places like Nepal, India, Japan and Europe.

Visit Takin Enclosure, located in the Motithang district of Thimphu, Bhutan is a wildlife reserve area for Takin, the national animal of Bhutan. Originally a mini-zoo, it was converted into a preserve when it was discovered that the animals refrained from inhabiting the surrounding forest even when set free.

Tashichho Dzong, is popularly known as Thimphu Dzong or “Fortress of the glorious religion” is an impressive structure that houses the Bhutanese government and stand on the right hand side of the Wangchu River.

End the day with a dinner at the Le Meridien Thimphu.
