01

Singapore – Hanoi

- Transfer to hotel
- Dinner on local restaurant with special Crab hotpot.
- Check-in and overnight in Hanoi.

02

Hanoi – Sapa – Cat Cat Village – Moana Sapa

- After breakfast at the hotel, depart for Sapa by land transfer. The journey takes approximately 5.5 hours.
- Upon arrival, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.
- In the afternoon, proceed to visit Cat Cat Village, home to the Black Hmong ethnic minority. Discover the villagers' traditional lifestyle, unique housing structures, and their simple, authentic way of life. Trek through the picturesque valley, crossing wooden bridges and visiting the old Hydro Electric Power Station, a historical relic built during the French colonial period in the early 20th century.
- Continue the journey to a popular check-in complex, located just 500 meters from the iconic Stone Church. Designed to blend harmoniously with the natural surroundings, this area offers a distinctive and scenic landscape overlooking the Hoang Lien Son mountain range and the majestic Fansipan Peak. The complex features seven unique attractions that have become favorite photo spots among young travelers:
  - Bali Heaven Gate
  - Moana Girl Statue
  - Infinity Lake
  - Golden Hand
  - Death Swing
  - Lonely Tree
  - Café & Viewing Area
- Enjoy dinner at a local restaurant.
- Check in to your hotel and overnight in Sapa.

Fansipan Mountain – Silver Waterfall – Heaven Gate – Dragon Glass Bridge

- After breakfast, a private car will pick you up and transfer you to the Centre Station, where you will board the Mường Hoa Funicular to the Cable Car Station. From there, take a round-trip cable car and funicular ride to the summit of Fansipan Mountain—the highest peak in Indochina at 3,143 meters above sea level.
- The cable car system, one of the longest in the world at 6,292 meters, offers breathtaking panoramic views of the Hoang Lien Son mountain range. At the summit, enjoy the scenery and take time to visit the spiritual complex, including the pagoda and temple.
- Lunch will be served at a local restaurant.
- After lunch, continue your journey with a scenic uphill drive offering spectacular views of Mount Fansipan. Just 1 km outside of Sapa town, pass by vibrant rose flower farms and sprawling chayote plantations growing on bamboo trellises.
- Stop at the stunning Silver Waterfall, and take a short walk along the cascading stream to fully appreciate the beauty of the area. You may also visit a nearby fish farm.
- Continue your journey to Heaven Gate – Tram Ton Pass, the highest mountain pass in Vietnam at 2,047 meters above sea level. Here, enjoy the cool mountain air and dramatic landscapes, and check in at the Dragon Glass Bridge, a thrilling glass walkway offering sweeping views of the surrounding mountains.
- Dinner at a local restaurant.
- Overnight in Sapa.

04

Sapa – Hanoi – Hoan Kiem Lake – Old Quarter – Egg Coffee Experience

- After breakfast, check out and transfer back to Hanoi by private vehicle.
- Upon arrival, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.
- In the afternoon, visit the iconic Hoan Kiem Lake, also known as the Lake of the Restored Sword. The lake is named after the legend of Emperor Lê Thái Tổ, who was said to have received a magical sword from the gods to defeat foreign invaders. After his victory, a golden tortoise appeared from the lake and returned the sword to the divine. Today, the lake remains a symbol of peace and history in the heart of Hanoi.
- Afterward, enjoy some leisure time exploring Hanoi's Old Quarter, where you can observe the vibrant daily life of the locals and immerse yourself in the rich culture of the capital city.
- Take a break to enjoy a cup of Hanoi's famous Egg Coffee, a unique and flavorful local specialty. While there, you'll have the chance to admire and photograph the charming colonial and ancient architecture of Hanoi's old houses.
- Dinner will be served at a local restaurant.
- Overnight in Hanoi.
