DAY 04 (10JUN): FOSHAN – SHENZHEN

(B/L/D)

- Breakfast at Hotel
 - After breakfast, head to Shenzhen.
 - Visit the newly popular hotspot, OCT Harbour, a new-generation cultural and tourism complex developed by OCT Group. With over 36 years of urban operation experience and an investment of over 10 billion RMB, the total area covers about 380,000 m². It features a seaside experiential shopping district, the 128m "Bay Area Light" Ferris wheel, Shenzhen Maritime Performance Center, and a perfect blend of sea views, parks, ecology, and commercial spaces. Visitors can also check out the popular bookstore, Zhongshu Ge. The "Bay Area Light" Ferris Wheel (ticket not included) is China's first 360-degree rotating imported Ferris wheel and is also the tallest Ferris wheel in Shenzhen.
 - After lunch, visit Lianhua Mountain Park, where the main peak has a 4,000m² outdoor plaza, the highest outdoor plaza in Shenzhen. In the center of the plaza stands a statue of Deng Xiaoping, the chief architect of China's reform and opening-up, standing 6 meters tall with a 3.68-meter base, made of bronze. The mountaintop plaza is a prime spot in the Shenzhen city center.
 - Next, visit Gankeng Ancient Town, originally a Hakka village, and one of the "Top 10 Hakka Villages in Shenzhen". The town dates back to the Ming and Qing dynasties, with many ancient buildings and interlinked alleys. Here, you can see the more than 120-year-old Nanxiang Lou, the Zhuangyuan Mansion built during the Yongzheng period, the Fenghuang Valley with its Huizhou-style architecture, as well as other Hakka structures like watchtowers, forts, and stilt houses, integrated into the beautiful mountain and water scenery. It forms a unique cultural destination showcasing Hakka architecture, folk customs, arts, traditional cuisine, and rural landscapes.
